All holidays and paid leave time shall be considered time worked for the purpose of computing overtime.

Section 3 Overtime Distribution

When overtime work is required, it shall be approved in advance by the employee's immediate supervisor, and it shall be equalized over each fiscal year as nearly as practical among employees holding the same job classification and working within a single department. In assigning overtime, the person with the necessary qualifications and abilities and with the least number of overtime hours in the job classification in a single department will be offered the work first. If this employee does not accept the assignment or cannot be contacted, the employee with the next fewest number of overtime hours to his/her credit shall be offered the assignment if they can be contacted. This procedure shall be followed until the required employee(s) has/have been selected for the overtime work. In the event that no one wants the overtime offered, the least senior employee(s) will be required to respond.

An employee who has been working on a specific job or who is performing a specific project may be assigned overtime beyond his/her regular work shift or be called back regardless of overtime hours to their credit.

For the purpose of this Section, the employee(s) who could not be contacted or who chose not to work the overtime being offered (excluding employees on vacation or on leave of absence) will be credited with the average number of overtime hours worked by employees during that period. A chart showing the overtime hours credited to each employee shall be maintained by the employee's immediate supervisor. This overtime chart shall be kept current and may be replaced monthly, but when it is, the accumulated number of overtime hours to each employee's credit will be carried forward to the chart next posted. On July 1 of each year, a new accumulation of overtime hours shall be started for each person covered by this Agreement. A new hire or a transferred, promoted or demoted employee shall be credited with the highest number of overtime hours of the equalization group which he/she enters.

ARTICLE 15

MINIMUM TIME PAY ALLOWANCES

Section 1 Call time

a) Regular Procedure

Any employee called to work outside of his/her regularly scheduled shift one time or two times within each twenty-four hour period, beginning at midnight, shall be paid for a minimum of three (3) hours work at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½). All hours worked in excess of three hours shall be at the overtime rate. Each additional call-out or pair of call-outs within the same twenty-four (24) hour period shall be paid for a minimum of three (3) hours work at the rate of time and one-half.

If the call time work assignment and the employee's regular shift overlap, the employee shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times his/her regular hourly rate only until the employee's regular work shift is scheduled to begin.

b) Holiday Procedure

Any employee called to work outside of his/her regularly scheduled shift one time or two times within each twenty-four (24) hour period, beginning at midnight of a designated holiday, shall be paid for a minimum of three (3) hours work at the rate of two (2) times the employee's regular rate of pay. All hours worked in excess of three hours shall be at the holiday overtime rate. Each additional call-out or pair of call-outs within the twenty-four (24) hour period designated as a holiday shall be paid for a minimum of three (3) hours work at the rate of two (2) times the employee's regular rate of pay.

ARTICLE 16

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Section 1 Uniforms and Protective Clothing

All uniforms, protective clothing, safety equipment and protective devices to be worn or used by employees as required by the Employer and which are currently provided by the Employer will continue to be provided by the Employer at no cost to the employee. The cost of maintaining the same shall be borne by the Employer.

ARTICLE 17

EMPLOYMENT - SENIORITY

Section 1 Seniority

Seniority shall be on a unit-wide basis and shall relate to the time an employee has been continuously employed by the Library in a full-time permanent position.

New employees shall be added to the seniority list thirty (30) days after their date of hire. The Employer shall post on a designated Union bulletin board, a current seniority list showing the continuous service of each employee. A copy of the seniority list shall be forwarded to the Union upon request.

Seniority of any employee shall be terminated for any of the following reasons:

- a) discharge for just cause;
- b) retirement;
- c) voluntary resignation (this includes failure to report for work without notification for three (3) consecutive days);
- d) failure to return to work as required when recalled from layoff; or
- e) being laid off for two (2) years without being recalled.

Section 2 Transfer Procedure

- a) No later than ten (10) days after non-temporary vacancies occur or new positions are created, Library employees shall be notified by the Employer posting a bulletin that such position is open for bid and said bulletin shall remain posted for five (5) consecutive days. In awarding bids, the most senior employee who meets the minimum qualifications the Library Director sets for the position shall be awarded the job.
- b) An employee awarded a job shall be awarded a thirty (30) day trial period to determine his/her ability to do the job in question. If, at the end of this trial period, the Employer determines that the employee is unable to perform the job in question, that employee shall be transferred back to his/her former position.

Section 3 Temporary Openings

The Employer may assign employees to temporary openings in positions within the bargaining unit. In the event the employee's pay schedule is equal or higher than that of the temporarily assigned duties, the employee's pay shall remain the same. In the event the employee's pay schedule is lower than the pay schedule of the temporarily assigned duties, and the employee assumes these duties for a period in excess of four (4) consecutive work hours, exclusive of breaks, meal periods or time performing incidental work of a lower classification, within one (1) pay period, the employee shall be advanced to his/her current pay step in the new pay range for the duration of the temporary assignment.

If the temporary opening assignment exceeds thirty (30) work days, it shall be filled by posting and transfer in the same manner as set forth in Section 2. The filling of a temporary opening in this manner shall be shown as a temporary transfer and its posting shall designate such fact and indicate the estimated length (in excess of 30 work days) of the temporary transfer. A temporary transfer shall terminate upon the return of the employee originally leaving the position or at such time as it is determined by the Employer that the original employee will not return, resulting in either the existence of a permanent opening or the elimination of the position.

Section 4 Layoff

- a) The number of people employed by the Library shall be the sole judgment of the Employer.
- b) In the event of a reduction in forces, seniority shall be the controlling factor (the least senior employee being the first laid off) and qualifications shall be given consideration, providing the remaining employees are qualified to perform the work.
- c) In the event the Employer decides to layoff any employees, the Employer shall give at least two (2) weeks advance notice thereof to employees being laid off.

Section 7 Recall From Layoff

In recalling personnel from layoff, the following procedure shall be followed:

- a) Employees shall be recalled according to their seniority.
- b) The Employer will attempt to notify each person to be recalled to report for work by certified U.S. Mail (return receipt requested). Such letter shall be directed to the last known address of such person, and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the Union. By so doing, the Employer shall have discharged its obligation under this Section. Employees who are laid off must keep the Employer and the Union supplied with their correct up-to-date mailing address or risk forfeiture of their seniority and recall rights.
- c) Persons so notified to report for work shall report for work within ten (10) days after the date the certified letter was mailed or shall be terminated and lose all seniority rights under this Agreement.
- d) Employees shall be recalled only to their last-held position within the department from which they were laid off, unless they have the desired qualifications for another position within the bargaining unit. If an employee is recalled to such a new position, they will be afforded a thirty (30) day trial period to prove his/her ability to perform the work under normal supervision and instruction.
- e) No new employees shall be hired for any position within the bargaining unit in a department in which there are employees on layoff, unless none of the employees on layoff qualify for a position vacancy within the department.
- f) Employees shall lose all recall and seniority rights after being on layoff for a period of two (2) years without being recalled or without being recalled to a position in which they successfully completed the trial period.

ARTICLE 18

DISCIPLINE, GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION

Section 1 Discipline, Suspension and Discharge

An orderly system of discipline shall begin with a written warning from the supervisor to the employee. The employee and the supervisor shall acknowledge the issuance of such written warning with their signatures, recognizing, however, that the employee's signature does not in any way constitute an admission of guilt to any wrong doings which may be alleged in said warning. Such warnings, whenever possible, shall be made in private. If a warning does not achieve the desired results, a suspension of from one (1) to not more than six (6) work days without pay may be levied against the employee for a second violation. If the suspension does not achieve the desired results, a second suspension of ten (10) work days without pay may be levied against the employee. The employee and his/her steward will be notified in writing that the employee has been suspended and is subject to discharge. Outright discharge for repeated violations or a single major violation may be levied. The employee shall have the right to appeal all written warnings, suspensions, or discharge through the grievance procedure. If the Employer has reason to reprimand an employee, whenever possible, it shall be done in a manner that will not embarrass the employee before other employees or the public. No employee shall be discharged without just cause.

Any employee found by the grievance procedure to have wrongfully been suspended or discharged shall be reinstated without loss of pay for the term of the suspension or the duration of the discharge. No employee shall be made to suffer loss of seniority or fringe benefits for a wrongful suspension or discharge if so ascertained.

Any employee appealing suspension or written warning shall do so in writing within five (5) work days from the beginning hour of such written warning or suspension. Any employee appealing discharge shall do so in writing within five (5) work days from the notice of discharge.

Section 2 Grievances and Arbitration

a) Definition

A grievance shall be defined as a dispute or disagreement raised by an employee against the Employer involving the interpretation or application of any specific provision of the Agreement. Employees may consult with the union steward prior to the filing of a grievance, and may have representation at any step of the procedure. Any individual employee shall have the right at any time to present his or her grievance, but no action shall be taken on any grievance without first notifying an officer of the Union. Grievances, as herein defined, shall be processed in the manner prescribed in Section 2.

b) Grievance and Arbitration Procedure

Step I

The Union Steward with or without the employee, at the employee's option, shall take up the grievance in writing with the employee's immediate supervisor within five (5) work days of the date of the grievance or the employee's knowledge of its occurrence. The supervisor shall attempt to adjust the matter and shall respond in writing to the steward and the employee within five (5) work days.

Step II

If the answer is not satisfactory to the employee, the matter shall be presented in writing by the union steward and the employee to the department head within five (5) work days after the date of the supervisor's response. The department head shall respond to the union steward and the employee in writing within five (5) work days.

Step III

If the grievance still remains unadjusted, it shall be presented by the union steward and the employee to the Personnel Director in writing within five (5) work days after the date of the response of the department head. The Personnel Director shall respond in writing to the union steward and the employee (with a copy of the response to the local union president) within five (5) work days.

Step IV

If the grievance is still unsettled, the Union and aggrieved employee may, within five (5) work days after the date of the reply of the Personnel Director, request arbitration.

The arbitration proceeding shall be conducted by an arbitrator to be selected by the Employer and the Union within five (5) work days after the notice requesting arbitration has been given. If the parties fail to select an arbitrator, the Public Employee Relations Board (PERB) shall be requested by either or both parties to provide a panel of five (5) arbitrators. Both the Employer and the Union shall have the right to strike two (2) names from the panel. The party requesting arbitration shall strike the first name; the other party shall then strike one (1) name. The process will be repeated and the remaining person shall be the arbitrator.

The decision of the arbitrator, within the scope of his/her authority, shall be final and binding on the parties and the arbitrator shall be requested to issue his/her decision with ten (10) work days after the conclusion of testimony and argument.

The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, nor shall he or she have authority to render any decision which conflicts with any law, ruling, or regulation issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, nor to imply any obligation on the Employer which is not specifically set forth in this Agreement.

Expenses for the arbitrator's services and the proceedings shall be borne equally by the Union and the Employer. However, each party shall be responsible for compensation to its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such record to be made, providing it pays for the record and makes copies available without charge to the other party and to the arbitrator.

c) Time Limitations

Failure by an employee or union steward to comply with any time limitation shall constitute a withdrawal of the grievance. If a grievance is not timely answered by the Employer, it may be automatically advanced to the next step.

It is understood that the "work days" referred to in the time limitations throughout Section 2 above refer to the workdays of the individual on whom the obligation to act or respond falls. Such work days are exclusive of vacations, holidays and leaves of absences.

d) Orderly Resolution

Should any grievance arise between the Employer and any employee, there shall be no interruption of work, and every effort shall be made to settle the grievance as soon as possible.

No employee, officer or steward shall be made to suffer loss of pay in the normal procession of grievances under the provisions of this Agreement, except where the employee is suspended or discharged. In the latter case, if the employee is reinstated, he/she shall not suffer any loss of pay or longevity.

e) Processing Grievances During Working Hours

The grievant and the steward or designee assigned to a grievance may investigate and process said grievance during working hours without loss of pay.

Section 3 Union-Management Committee

Employees selected by the Union to act as union representatives shall be known as "stewards". The names of employees selected as stewards shall be certified in writing to the Employer by the local Union, and the individuals so certified shall constitute the Union-Management Committee.

The Employer shall meet with the Union-Management Committee no more than once each month providing an agenda has been prepared prior to the meeting. More meetings could be held if mutually agreed to by the Union and the Employer.

All Union-Management Committee meetings will be held for the purpose of discussing with the Employer issues which would improve the relationship between the parties.

ARTICLE 19

ARTICLE 20

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1 Union Bulletin Boards

The Employer agrees to furnish and maintain suitable bulletin boards in convenient places in each work area to be used by the Union. The Union shall limit its posting of notices and bulletins to such bulletin boards.

Section 2 Union Activities on Employer's Time and Premises

The Employer agrees that during working hours, on the Employer's premises and without loss of pay, Union representatives shall be allowed to transmit communications authorized by the local Union or its officers, or other Union representatives concerning the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement.

Section 3 Visits by Union Representatives

The Employer agrees that accredited representatives, not to exceed two (2) at any one time, of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, whether local union representatives, district council representatives, or international representatives, shall have full and free access to the premises of the Employer at any time during working hours to conduct Union business provided reasonable notice be given to the Employer of the pending visit. It is understood that there shall be no interruption or interference with the Employer's operations and the visiting agent or agents shall adhere to all of the Employer's safety and security procedures.

Section 4 Work Rules

The Employer agrees to inform the Union of existing work rules and of the establishment of new work rules affecting the working conditions of the employees within the bargaining unit.

The Employer will not establish work rules which are in conflict with the terms of this Agreement. All work rules will be posted forty (40) work hours before they become effective.

Section 5 In-Service Training

All required in-service training shall be at the expense of the Employer and shall take place during regular working hours whenever possible.

Section 6 Personnel Files

Employees shall have free access to their personnel files. Any subject matter submitted by the Employer to the employee's personnel file which could be detrimental to the employee's future promotion, transfer, present or future employment, shall be served upon the employee in writing.

Section 7 Physicals

All physicals required by the Employer shall be provided at no cost to the employee.

ARTICLE 21

SAVINGS CLAUSE

Should any Article, Section, or portion thereof of this Agreement be held unlawful and unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision of the court shall apply only to the specified Article, Section, or portion thereof declared null and void in the decision and the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect; upon the issuance of such a decision, the parties agree immediately to negotiate a substitute for the invalidated Article, Section, or portion thereof.

ARTICLE 22

ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND WAIVER CLAUSE

This Agreement supersedes and cancels all previous agreements and practices between the Employer and the Union, and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and concludes collective bargaining for its term. This contract may be reopened for the reconsideration of specific Articles and/or Sections only upon written mutual agreement of the parties at anytime during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 23

DURATION AND NEGOTIATIONS

Section 1 Contract Period

This Agreement shall be effective as of the first (1st) day of July, 2003, and shall remain in full force and effect through the thirtieth (30th) day of June, 2008; however, the parties mutually agree to reopen Article 11 INSURANCE if the cumulative total health care cost to the Employer exceeds forty-five percent (45%) during the first three years of this contract. If Article 11 INSURANCE is reopened due to the aforementioned increase in health care costs, the Union and the Employer agree to negotiate health care coverage changes that result in at least a five percent (5%) health care cost savings to the Employer for the remaining two years of this contract. Negotiations for a succeeding Agreement to become effective starting on July 1, 2008, shall begin after August 31, 2007, but not later than September 30, 2007.

Section 2 Impasse Procedures

In the event the parties are unable to voluntarily negotiate a new collective bargaining agreement (including reopened provisions), the impasse procedures attached to this Agreement and marked Addendum B may be invoked by either party pursuant to Chapter 20 of the Code of Iowa.
